- 4. Immediately after the assault, she told you she wanted to leave and to which you agreed.
- 5. However, as she was leaving the yard she turned back and saw you holding a rifle while going after her. She hid from you, waved a bus down, and fled the scene.
- 6. The accounts of your other violent and abusive behaviors towards her revealed you have threatened her in the past with your rifle.

- 7. She also reported accounts of assault using a piece of wood and uttering words to the effect "you mekem wanem I good long ples ia, you stap westem time nomo".
- 8. She said in some occasions, you would be very aggressive and would burn all her clothes and even her family members would try to intervene but you would not seem to bother or are too aggressive.

- 11. In considering the aggravating and the mitigating factors, I set a starting point of 12 months to be concurrent for both charges.

D. Deduction for Guilty Plea

12. You pleaded guilty at first given opportunity. This flows from your prior admissions to the Police at cautioning. You are therefore entitled to one-third reduction of your starting sentence (4 months and 1 week).

E. Personal Factors

F. End Sentence

- 17. The sentencing principles achievable in this case are to hold you accountable for your conduct, to denounce criminal conduct and to send the message to the public that these types of offending are unacceptable and that the community and homes must always be the safest places for everyone to live in.
- 18. Your end sentence is 5 months and 3 weeks.
